

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost I express my gratitude to University of Science and Technology, Meghalaya (USTM) for giving me this opportunity to carry on PhD work in this University.

I am extremely grateful to my guide honourable D K Sharma, Professor of Zoology, School of Biological Sciences, University of Science and Technology, Meghalaya for his continuing interest, inspiring guidance and constant encouragement throughout the course of this study. It would not have been possible for me to complete this work if he had not shown his blissful interest in this matter.

I express my sincere gratitude to my co guide (s) Dr. Rezina Ahmed, Associate Professor of Zoology, Cotton University, Guwahati, Assam and Dr. Moushumi Das, former Assistant Professor of Zoology, University of Science and Technology, Meghalaya for their continuous guidance and support throughout the course of my research work. It would not have been possible for me to carry out this work without their inspiring guidance and mental boost.

I am also thankful to Dr. Dipesh Ch. Bhagabati, honourable principal, SBMS College, Sualkuchi for his encouragement and giving permission to carry out the work.

I also offer my gratitude to Dr. Bakhtiar Hussain, Head, Department of Zoology, University of Science and Technology, Meghalaya for his encouragement during course of my work.

I greatly acknowledge to Dr. Nivedita Saha, Scientist – C and Dr. Chitra J, Assistant Scientist, Zoological Survey of India, Kolkata for their valuable help and suggestion during the course of my work.

I also like to offer my thanks to Dr. P. Boruah, of Remote Sensing, ASTEC, Guwahati for his help in preparing the location maps and suggestions during course of this work.

I am thankful to my well-wisher Mr. Arup Sharma, Department of English, SBMS College, Sualkuchi for his help in proof reading of the thesis.

I am glad to convey my sense of heartiest thanks to my mother, Mrs Anima Kalita and my niece Nabanita Kalita (Munu) who gave mental support during my work. Finally, I have no words to acknowledge my sweetest daughter Krittika (Sonmaina) and dearest son Ridhiman (Bapa) who is really supportive.

Finally I am greatly thankful to my husband Dr. Kamal Choudhury, Department of Botany, S.B.M.S. College, Soalkuchi, who helped and co-operate me in every step during the course of my work.
