

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Any acknowledgement required the effort of many people and this work is also no exception. In this piece of research work, I had to pass through many obstacles but due to continuous insistence and untiring support from my former research guide Dr. Dinesh Baishya, I could have completed the task. Words fails to express my gratitude to him, yet, I am immensely indebted to him and accordingly my sincere appreciation and heartfelt gratitude goes to Dr. Dinesh Baishya for providing me his thought provoking ideas, stimulating and sincere guidance, minutest observation and scrutiny of the work and valuable suggestions from time to time in order to add value to my work. At the same time my hearty thanks goes to Dr. Alpana Choudhury my guide. It is absolutely because of her sustained help in every step, this work could be moulded into a concrete shape without which it could not have been possible for me to complete the task in this present form.

I am specially thankful to my husband Mr. Mahananda Thakuria who had been a consistent source of inspiration in preparing the manuscript for the project. Without his deep understanding, co-operation, technical help and active support, it would not have been possible to complete this task.

My special thanks goes to Mr. Kamal Medhi and Mr. Ranjit Kr. Choudhury whose increasing support and inspiration extended to me greatly stimulated my inner mind to complete the work.

I would like to express my gratitude and indebtedness to various individual and institutions without whose guidance, support and encouragement this Research Project could not have been carried out.

I am obliged to thank to Dr. Abani Kr. Das, Dr. Sarbeswar Das and Dr. Mrinak Kr. Bora, Mr. Ranjit Kr. Chakraborty, Mr. Jayanta Kr. Saloi, Mr. Arjun

Mazumdar and Balen Ch. Medhi, who helped me in various ways in carrying out this work properly.

I owe a depth of gratitude to Dr. Jayanta Deva Sarma Officer In-charge Handloom Research & Designing Centre, Ambari, Guwahati-1 whose co-operation helped me in proper collections of traditional designs which have been put in the project.

I am thankful to Dr. Ashit Kr. Paul, Principal In-charge BCM College, Ramdia who encouraged me to complete the work in time. I also express my thanks to my other colleagues of the college for their encouragement.

My thanks are due to my student Manash Pratim Jyoti Medhi, Anita Kalita and Manalisha Deka for their help during the field work. I also thankful to our office Assistant Hasnur Ali Choudhury for his kind co-operation in carrying out my DTP work in times of emergency.

I am indebted to the weavers of the region who had accepted my presence among them and offered their full co-operation in their villages for field investigation.

I am also indebted to the authors of the books, articles and publications which are included as reference in my study.

I owe a deep sense of gratitude to my parents in-law, relatives, my son Krithartha and Abhinav and my daughter Harshita, my friends Jaya Medhi and Thunumoni Talukdar and all of my well-wishers for their unstinting encouragement in carrying out this project.

I would like to acknowledge the courtesy of Assam State Museum, Department of Anthropology, Gauhati University, the collection of Purbajyoti

Sangrahalaya, Srimanta Sankardeva Kalakhetra Panjabari, Guwahati-37 for their kind permission to take the relevant photographs used in this book.

Lastly, I must not fail to thank to the personal of the library of IIE, Lakhra, Tribal research Centre, Khanapara and the K.K. Handique Library of Gauhati University, Maulana Azad Central Library of USTM, BCM College Library, Ramdia, Library of Suren Das College, Hajo for allowing me to use the library.

All efforts have been made to make the work success. However there may remain some short comings for which I shall bear responsibility.
