

List of Tables

Socio-Economic Background of the Respondent

Table 4.1: Sex of the respondents.

Table 4.2: Age group of the respondents.

Table 4.3: Numbers of family members.

Table 4.4: Type of household.

Table 4.5: Educational Level of Respondents.

Table 4.6: Language known by the respondents.

Table 4.7: Reasons for discontinuing studies.

Table 4.8: Educational qualification of father.

Table 4.9: Educational qualification of mother.

Table 4.10: Occupation of the father of the respondents.

Table 4.11: Occupations of your mother of the respondents.

Table 4.12: Type of job looked by the respondents.

Table 4.13: Most important goal of respondents' life.

Table 4.14: Mismatch of educational qualification and the labor market is the reason for unemployed.

Table 4.15: Quality of education as the cause of the educated youths' unemployment.

Table 4.16: Source of money for the respondents.

Table 4.17: Household Consumption Pattern.

Table 4.18: Monthly Household Income.

Table 4.19: Getting the required money for fulfilling minimum requirement to life as food.

Table 4.20: Feeling free to ask money from parents.

Table 4.21: Marital status of the respondents.

Table 4.22: Perception towards the existence of poverty in Ukhurul district in the next 10 years.

Table 4.23: Expectation towards the following to happen in the near future.

Table 4.24: Person living in the household of the respondents.

Table 4.25: Number of persons living in the household of the respondents without work and are actively looking for work.

Patterns of unemployment in Ukhurul District

Table 4.26: Sustaining without regular paid employment by the respondents.

Table 4.27: If yes, source of income.

Table 4.28: Completed vocational or technical school training.

Table 4.29: Type of work experience of the respondents.

Table 4.30: Relation between the type of work experience and monthly household income of the respondents.

Table 4.31: Relation between type of work experience and educational qualification of the respondents.

Table 4.32: Type of unemployment of the respondents.

Table 4.33: Relation between type of employment and educational qualification of the respondents.

Table 4.34: Relation between type of employment and monthly household income of the respondents.

Table 4.35: Type of unemployment mostly seen in the area of the respondents.

Table 4.36: Relation between type of unemployment visible in the study area and educational qualification of the respondents.

Table 4.37: Relation between type of unemployment visible in the study area and monthly household income of the respondents.

Table 4.38: Source of engagement while looking for a job by the respondents.

Table 4.39: Relation between source of engagement while looking for a job and educational qualification of the respondents.

Table 4.40: Relation between source of engagement while looking for a job and monthly household income of the respondents.

Table 4.41: Reason for not working or looking for work by the respondents.

Table 4.42: Relation between the main reason for not working or looking for work and educational qualification of the respondents.

Table 4.43: Relation between main reason for not working or looking for work and Monthly household income of the respondents.

Table 4.44: Consideration of moving out of district to find work.

Table 4.45: Relation between considering moving outside the district to find work and monthly household income of the respondents.

Table 4.46: Reason for not availing opportunities outside Ukhurul by the respondents.

Table 4.47: Relation between suspending from availing opportunities outside Ukhurul and educational qualification of the respondents.

Table 4.48: Relation between suspending from availing opportunities outside Ukhurul and monthly household income of the respondents.

Table 4.49: Source for searching job.

Table 4.50: Receipt of advice from the employment service.

Table 4.51: The level of education required for getting a decent employment.

Table 4.52: Refusal of any job that was offered to the respondents.

Table 4.53: Relation between refusal to any job and educational qualification of the respondents.

Table 4.54: Relation between refusal to any job and monthly household income of the respondents.

Table 4.55: Reason for leaving job by most of the people in your area.

Problems of unemployment in Ukhurul District

Table 4.56: Respondents level of seeking for work.

Table 4.57: Relation between the respondents who are actively seeking work and their educational qualification.

Table 4.58: Relation between the respondents who are actively seeking work and their monthly household income.

Table 4.59: Discontinuation of education to work fulltime.

Table 4.60: Obstacle in finding a good job.

Table 4.61: Effects of unemployment.

Table 4.62: Unemployment as a male problem or a female problem.

Table 4.63: Consultation by the family in family matters.

Table 4.64: Similarity of the opinion of the respondents with head of the family in family matters.

Table 4.65: Feeling of isolation and cut off from society because of unemployment.

Table 4.66: Most important impact of unemployment in the area of the respondents out of the following.

Table 4.67: Relation between most important impact of unemployment in the area and educational qualification of the respondents.

Table 4.68: Things done by the respondents in the last two/three years in the following list.

Table 4.69: Relation between purpose of engagement in last two – three years and educational qualification of the respondents.

Table 4.70: Relation between purpose of engagement in last two – three years and monthly household income of the respondents.

Table 4.71: Likeliness to accept any job by the respondents.

Table 4.72: Relation between probability of the respondents to accept any job and their educational qualification.

Table 4.73: Presence of affect of unemployment on the status of the respondents at home and the status of the family in the community.

Table 4.74: Relation between the likelihood of affecting the status at home as well as the status of family/community due to unemployment and educational qualification of the respondents.

Table 4.75: Relation between the likelihood of affecting the status at home as well as the status of family/community due to unemployment and monthly household income of the respondents.

Table 4.76: Likelihood of fulfilling the expectations of the parents.

Table 4.77: Relation between likelihood of fulfilling the expectations of the parents and educational qualification of the respondents.

Table 4.78: Relation between likelihood of fulfilling the expectations of the parents and Monthly household income of the respondents.

Table 4.79: Person to have interaction most.

Table 4.80: Hope to get a suitable job of choice by the respondents.

Table 4.81: Relation between hoping to get a suitable job of choice and educational qualification of the respondents.

Table 4.82: Relation between hoping to get a suitable job of choice and monthly household income of the respondents.

Table Table 4.83: Existence of minimum level of income per month for accepting a work.

Table 4.84: Relation between the choice of having minimum level of income per month to accept any job and educational qualification of the respondents.

Table 4.85: Relation between the choice of having minimum level of income per month to accept any job and monthly household income of the respondents.

Table 4.86: Perception towards having a life doing something different from the training received by the respondents.

Table 4.87: Poor political leadership as one of the major reasons for unemployment in the locality.

Table 4.88: Relation between thinking that poor political leadership is one of the major reasons for unemployment in the locality and educational qualification of the respondents.

Causes of unemployment

Table 4.89: Level of satisfaction towards the present educational system by the respondents.

Table 4.90: Completion of vocational or technical training.

Table 4.91: Usefulness of the education/training received in the past in getting a job by the respondents.

Table 4.92: Reasons for youth not availing the self employment avenues.

Table 4.93: Perception towards the types of problems in development of self employment infrastructure.

Table 4.94: Contribution of population growth in raising the problem of unemployment.

Table 4.95: Type of income received by the respondents and their household.

Table 4.96: Level of satisfaction regarding the role and functioning of Bureaucracy in Manipur.

Table 4.97: Relation between perspective towards bureaucracy in Manipur and educational qualification of the respondents.

Table 4.98: Functioning of political parties and politicians in Manipur.

Table 4.99: Relation between perspective towards functioning of political parties and politicians in Manipur and educational qualification of the respondents.

Table 4.100: Functioning of judiciary in Manipur.

Table 4.101: Relation between perspective towards functioning of judiciary in Manipur and educational qualification of the respondents.

Table 4.102: Role of family towards the educated unemployed youth.

Table 4.103: Relation between perspective towards roles of family towards the educated unemployed youth and educational qualification of the respondents.

Table 4.104: Community attitudes towards educated unemployed youth.

Table 4.105: Relation between community's attitudes towards educated unemployed youth and educational qualification of the respondents.

Table 4.106: Perception of the respondents towards bringing any change for youth in Ukhrul district by the state government.

Alternatives means of livelihood for employment in Ukhrul District

Table 4.107: Awareness of the programmes and policies launched by the government.

Table 4.108: Perception towards self employment or entrepreneurship as the demand of the hour.

Table 4.109: Areas where a youth of the village can start a new employment.

Table 4.110: Existence of link with political association by the respondents.

Table 4.111: Relation between any link of the respondents with political association and their monthly household income.

Table 4.112: Existence of link with cultural association by the respondents.

Table 4.113: Relation between any link of the respondents with cultural association and their monthly household income.

Table 4.114: Existence of link with welfare association by the respondents

Table 4.115: Relation between any link of the respondents with welfare associations and their monthly household income.

Table 4.116: Existence of link with sports association by the respondents.

Table 4.117: Relation between any link of the respondents with sports association and their monthly household income.