

List of Tables

Socio-Economic Background of the Respondents

(Natives)

Table No.1 Age of the Respondents

Table No.2 Sex of the respondents

Table No. 3 Marital status of the respondents.

Table No. 4 Relationship between the age of the respondents and the number of children that the respondents were having.

Table No. 5 Social category of the Respondents.

Table No. 6 Religion of the Respondents

Table No. 7 Types of family of the Respondents.

Table No. 8 Number of the earning member in the family of the respondents.

Table No. 9 Relational between age of the Respondents and the Educational qualification of the respondents.

Table No. 10 The relation between possession of professional qualification by the respondents and their age group

Table No.11 Nature of village of the respondents.

Table No. 12 Job status of the respondents.

Table No. 13 Types of occupation performed by the Respondents.

Table No. 14 Family Income of the Respondents.

Table No. 15 Relationship between the monthly income and the major spending of the respondents from the monthly income.

Table No. 16 Land acquired by the native respondents.

(Migrants).

Table No. 1 Age of the respondents.

Table No. 2 Sex of the respondents.

Table No 3. Marital status of the respondents.

Table No. 4 Number of Children of the respondents.

Table No. 5 Social category of the Respondents.

Table No. 6 Religion of the respondents.

Table No. 7 Language mostly used to communicate with others community.

Table No. 8 Type of family of the respondents.

Table No. 9 Size of family of the respondents.

Table No. 10 Number of earning members in the family.

Table No. 11 Relationship between sex and educational qualification of the respondents.

Table No. 12 Relationship between the name of the villages with the nature of village.

Table No. 13 Facilities that are available at the destination area.

Table No. 14. Nature of the work

Table No. 15 Additional Professional Skills/Job of the migrants.

Table No.16 Satisfaction of the present job.

Table No. 17. Duration of staying in the destination areas.

Table No. 18 Relationship between household family income and number earning members in the family.

Table no. 19 Relationship between monthly income of the household and the patterns of spending.

Table No. 20 Relationship between monthly income and the plot of land which they are capturing.

Patterns and causes of migration in the study area.

(Natives)

Table No. 17 Prevalence of regular migration at the particular area

Table No. 18 Category of Migration.

Table No. 19 How do you perceive migration at your place?

Table No. 20 Kind of problem faced by the natives people because of migration.

(Migrants)

Table No. 21 Advice/Source of information for migration into the destination areas.

Table No. 22. Relationship between place of origin and their duration of work.

Table No. 23 First person to migrate from migrant family.

Table No. 24 Members who join later.

Table No. 25 Route used for migration at the destination areas.

Table No. 26 Decision making to migrate into the destination areas.

Table No. 27 Relationship with others peoples the local residents (natives) and (migrants).

Table No. 28 Plan for the future for migration.

Impact of migration in the study area

(Natives)

Table No. 21 How do you perceive migration at your place?

Table No. 22 Kind of problem faced by the native's people because of migration.

Table No.23 Perception of natives towards advantages of migration in the study Area.

Table No. 24 To what an extent migration has impact on tribal and culture society (cultural diversity).

Table No. 25 Changes take place in native society and culture because of migration.

(Migrants)

Table No.29 Impact of Migration on the Institutions of the Migrants

Table No. 30 Problem faced by the migrants at the destination areas.

Table No. 31 Relationship between status of job before and after migration.

Table No. 32 Occupational Mobility of the Migrants

Table No. 33 Competition between the migrants.

Table No. 34 Prefer to marry their children with the local (natives) people.