As a supervisor, she has motivated and encouraged me to move forward with investigation for achieving my goal. Her outstanding guidance, valuable and constructive criticism and also friendly advice helped me a lot to successful completion of the research work. This work would not have been possible without the proper guidance of my supervisor.

I also offer my sincere thanks to my husband Dr.Siba Ranjan Mahanta, for his constant support and encouragement to achieve my goal . I thank my mother Smt. Charubala Mahanta, for her blessings, who is my role model and also a source of inspiration.

Words are indeed not sufficient to thank my dearest sons Arindam and Abhigyan, for their constant support and help in every possible way from the beginning to the end of this research work. This thesis is dedicated to my sons.

I would like to thank my brothers, family members and for their support and blessings.

Lastly, I thank Almighty for giving me patience and strength to work through all these years.
